

ABSTRACT

The main motive of the project is to compare the expected yield and moving average yield of the crop paddy. Rainfall plays an important role in determining the major parameters like weighted average yield, etc. The project also talks about one of the major crop insurance schemes that are offered to the farmers in later part. So basically the idea of the project is to determine if the net benefit under expected yield is more than the existing yield or not.