

SPATIAL INEQUALITY IN EASTERN INDIAN CITIES

ABSTRACT

This paper examines the spatial segregation in the 6 major cities in Eastern India using the ward level data released by census. The findings of the study suggest that there is significant residential segregation by caste and also by access to in house drinking water, in house latrines and ownership of two wheelers.