

ABSTRACT

The paper tries to find out changes in health care utilization in Odisha after the launch of Biju Swasthya Kalyan Yojana by evaluating the trend in different health care services. This study analyses available HMIS data through graphical representations and quantitative techniques. The healthcare care utilizations in private hospitals more recently has been increasing rapidly. Also, the healthcare utilization is moving more simultaneously between government and private hospitals in the recent times.